DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-19 are pending in this application. Claims 8-19 stand withdrawn, being drawn to the non-elected group.

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the office has not provided adequate reasons and/or examples to support a conclusion of patentably distinctness between the identified groups. This is not found persuasive because the office has indeed fully explained the distinctness on page 2-3, starting from the 1st paragraph on page 2 and ending at the first paragraph on page 3. The office action has clearly pointed out that protecting the human skin is not the same as the textile. One is live and the other is not. A laundry detergent is not known to protect the human skin, and at the same time, various skin ointment cannot be used to protect the textiles.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

These claims are couched in terms of "use" of compound (A), but fails to recite any steps involved therein, thus rendering the claims indefinite.

Art Unit: 1621

4. Claim s 1-7 provides for the use of compound (A), but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).
